THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

GEN. LEE'S REPORT ON SCHOOL DISCIPLINE.

In the Educational Convention, in session at Lynchburg, on Wednesday last, Gen. F. H. Smith read the following "Report on School Discipline," prepared by the Chairman, Gen. Robert E. Lee, who was unavoidably absent:

The Committee appointed by the Educational Association of Virginia, on "School Discipline," beg leave to report that, in their opinion, it is impracticable to establish fixed rules for the government of schools. Public sentiment is so divided on the subject, and the methods of family training are so various, that no uniform system can be well adopted to meet the general requirement.

If the subject of education could ever be of more importance at one period of our history than at another, that period is the present: and that it may be advanced to the highest state of proficiency, it is important that general co-operation should be enlisted in its support.

It is, therefore, considered more advantageous to recommend for attention some general principles, and leave their application to the judgment and discretion of teachers.

The selection of proper persons for the office of teacher is a matter of the first importance, and as its duties require long and comprehensive preparation, it should be regarded as among the most honorable and important professions, and be committed to those whose beneficial influence and instruction shall embrace morals and religion, as well as the intellect. The teacher should be the example of the pupil. He should aim at the highest attainable proficiency, and not a pleasing mediocrity. Unless he can teach those committed to his care to think, and to work, and can impart to them vigor with learning, there can be no real advance. He must study the character and disposition of his pupils, and adapt his course of discipline to their peculiarities. Above all, he must be uniform, consistent, firm, kind in his conduct, teach more by acts than words, and show the children under his charge that he has their true interest at heart. He should look upon them not only as the parents of a new generation, but also as heirs of immortality, and while preparing them for usefulness in this life, instil into their impressible minds principles of piety and religion; for if it be true, as taught by history, that greatness depends upon virtue, it is equally true that religion is the fountain and support of virtue.

Should the daily business of the school be conducted on such principles, and the pupils be trained in the habits of obedience, reverence and truthfulness, and be convinced that they are noble and lovely in themselves, and their practice manly and honorable, the main object of education will have been attained.

In addition to these moral influences, a teacher should be clothed with all the authority of the parent in the discharge of his duties, and be sustained by him so long as he may entrust his child to his care. That he may be kept constantly informed of the conduct of his child, weekly, quarterly and yearly reports of his progress should be sent him by the teacher, in which should be stated his absences, late attendance and misbehavior. Certificates of advancement should likewise be given to those who excel in studies and conduct.—The system of punishments ought to be as simple and mild as they can be made effective, and when coercion has to be resorted to, it should be generally left to the parent. Should admonition, restriction of recreation, &c., fail to produce the desired effect, and the pupil obstinately resist the patient expostulation of the teacher, there will then be no other resource than to return him to his parents as one unworthy a place in the school.

In connection with this subject, and as an additional incentive for the faithful and conscientious discharge of parental duty, the committee refer to a statement which the present Lord Shaftsbury is said to have made at a recent public meeting in London, that he had ascertained by personal observation, that of adult male criminals of that city, nearly all had begun a course of crime between the ages of eight and sixteen; and that if a young man should pursue a virtuous life till he was twenty years old, there were forty-nine chances in favor, and only one against his continuing an honest life thereafter. How great is the importance, then, of every parent's exercising the necessary control over his child until sixteen. By proper management this would not be difficult, and might be the means of saving him from crime, misery and remorse.

Respectfully submitted,

R. E. LEE,
S. MAUPIN,
FRANCIS H. SMITH,
Committee.

This last reconstruction bill is an act of perfidy on the part of Congress. Only a few weeks ago the radical speaker of the house, who, from his position, may be presumed to know whereof he affirms in all matters relating to his party, declared, in effect, in a speech in New York, that there could be no change of the terms offered the south in the first military bills, if she accepted them, without a gross breach of faith which should make the men execrable who were guilty of it!

She did accept them, and was proceeding to reorganize under them in entire good faith; and now Congress has met to change the terms, and to impose more severe ones on her. It has openly committed the mean and criminal act of repudiating the pledge it gave to the southern people, and Speaker Colfax is foremost in the infamous work.—Chicago Times.

"J. N.," THE PHILOSOPHER.—We have received a letter from this famous person, dated at Cincinnati, the 16th inst, in which he says he will address the people of Richmond on Thursday, the 25th instant, from the steps of the capitol. He says "I will assume all on myself and lift the veil which now offers to enshroud all."—Richmond Examiner.

A new style of steam carriage appeared in Boston a few days ago. It was a light open buggy, carrying two men, and had no visible means of locomotion save a slight apparatus under the box. The vehicle came along a street on the track just behind a horse car; but when the car stopped the buggy was turned aside and passed by the car, and was guided as easily as if a horse had been attached.

PASSED AT THE JULY SESSION.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it is hereby declared to have been the true intent and meaning of the act of the second day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, entitled an act for the more efficient government of the rebel States, and of the act supplementary thereto, passed on the 24th. day of March, in the year 1867, that the governments then existing in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas and Arkansas were illegal and void, and thereafter the same governments, if continued, were to be continued subject in all respects to the military commanders of the respective Districts and to the authority of Congress.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That the commander of any district named in said act shall have power, subject to the approval of the General of the armies of the United States, to have effect till disapproved, whenever in the opinion of such commander the proper administration of said act shall require it, to suspend or remove from office, or from the performance of official duties and the exercise of official powers, any officer or person holding or exercising, or professing to hold or exercise, any civil or military office or duty in such district, under any power, election, appointment, or authority derived from or granted by, or claimed under any so called State or the government thereof, or any municipal or other division thereof, and upon such suspension or removal such commander, subject to the approval of the General aforesaid, shall have the power to provide from time to time for the performance of the said duties of such officer or person so suspended or removed, by the detail of some competent officer or soldier of the army or by the appointment of some other person to perform the same, and to fill vacancies occasioned by death, resignation or otherwise.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted, That the General of the armies of the United States shall be invested with all the powers of suspension, removal, appointment and detail granted in the preceding section to district commanders.

SECTION 4. And be it further enacted, That the acts of the officers of the army already done in removing in said districts persons exercising the functions of civil officers and appointing others in their stead are hereby confirmed; provided that any person heretofore or hereafter appointed by any district commander to exercise the functions of any civil office may be removed, either by the military officer in command of the district or by the General of the army; and it shall be the duty of commanders to remove from office, as aforesaid, all persons who are disloyal to the government of the United States, or who use their official influence in any manner to hinder, delay, prevent or obstruct the due and proper administration of this act, and the acts to which this is supplementary.

SECTION 5. And be it further enacted, That the boards of registration provided for in the act entitled "an act supplementary to an act entitled 'an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, shall have power, and it shall be their duty, before allowing the registration of any person, to ascertain upon such facts or information as they can obtain, whether such person is entitled to be registered under said act, and the oath required by said act shall not be conclusive on such question, and no person shall be registered unless such board shall decide that he is entitled thereto; and such board shall also have power to examine under oath (to be administered by any member of such board) any one touching the qualification of any person claiming registration. But in every case of a refusal by the board to register an applicant, made in every case hereinafter provided, the board shall make a note or memorandum, which shall be returned with the registration list to the commanding Generals of the Districts, setting forth the ground of such refusal, or such striking from the list: Provided, that no person shall be disqualified, as a member of any board of registration, by reason of race or color.

SECTION 6. And be it further enacted, That the true intent and meaning of the oath prescribed in said supplementary act is (among other things) that no person who has been a member of the Legislature of any State or who has held any executive or judicial office in any State, whether he has taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States or not, and whether he was holding such office at the commencement of the rebellion or had held it before, and who has afterward engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof, is entitled to be registered or to vote; and the words "executive or judicial office in any State" in said oath mentioned shall be construed to include all civil offices created by law for the administration of the general law of the State, or for the administration of justice.

SECTION 7. And be it further enacted That the time for completing the original registration provided for in said act may, in the discretion of the commander of any district, be extended to the 1st day of October, 1867; and the boards of registration shall have power, and it shall be their duty, commencing fourteen days prior to any election under said act, and upon reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of three days the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the list. And such board shall also during the same period, add to such registry the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said act who have not been already registered, and no person shall at any time be entitled to be registered or to vote by reason of any executive pardon or amnesty for any act or thing which, without such pardon or amnesty, would disqualify him from registration or voting.

SECTION 8. And be it further enacted, That section 4 of the said last-named act shall be construed to authorize the commanding general named therein, whenever he shall deem it needful, to remove any member of a board of registration, and to appoint another person in his stead, and to fill any vacancy in such board.

SECTION 9. That all members of said Boards of Registration and all persons hereafter elected or appointed to office in said military districts, under any so-called State or municipal authority or by detail or appointment of the District Commanders, shall be required to take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

SECTION 10. That no District Commander or member of the Board of registration or any of the officers or appointees acting under them shall be bound in his action by any opinion of any civil officer of the United States.

SECTION 11. That all the provisions of this act, and the acts to which this is supplementary, shall be construed liberally, to the end that all the intents thereof may be fully and perfectly carried out.

THE

AMERICAN BITTERS.

The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED,

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERed Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally.—For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston R. Jones, one of the most scientific and well known Physicians in the Southern States, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 24, 1867.

CAPT. R. A. SHOTWELL, of Newbern, is our authorized agent to receive subscriptions and advertising for the Sentinel in Craven, Carteret, Jones and Onslow. He will spend the summer at Morehead City and Beaufort, and will give us the news from that section.

REGISTER! REGISTER! REGISTER!

Gen. Sickles will no doubt, in a short time, issue his order for Registration, and will specify, we trust definitely, so as to be fully understood by every one, who are entitled to register and vote. So soon as the day arrives for the registration, we beg and implore every man, thus entitled, to go and register. Let nothing but severe sickness, or disqualification under the law, prevent you from registering.

THE "REGISTER" AND ITS PARTY.

In an article, some days ago, we conceded that there were to be found men in the Republican party, who were sound Union men, who had always been opposed to slavery, and who were conscientious in the support of the doctrine of equality to all men. To such amiable men as our neighbor of the Register, and others we know, we concede that they have been consistent in their views; but he unintentionally misstates our position, when he says, that the Sentinel makes "a full and candid confession that the Republican party is built upon the platform laid down by our forefathers, on the 4th day of July, 1776." On a review of our article, the Register will see that we made no such concession to the Republican or Radical party, but to some who act with the Republican party, but who at the same time always ignore the party designation of Radical, in its bad sense.

We are glad to make this concession, because we believe it to be true. We believe that such men as these we have mentioned are the friends of peace and of real good will to the Southern people, and friends of the Union, and that they advocate reconstruction on the Congressional platform—nothing more, nothing less,—because it promises the earliest, if not the only, prospect of the restoration of the Union. But we have no evidence, no assurance, that many in the Republican party, and those who unfortunately constitute a very influential portion of that party, seek or desire peace with the South or an early restoration. Hitherto, they have succeeded in delaying and obstructing reconstruction, and it is in evidence that, in so far as Mr. Thaddeus Stevens and those who affiliate with him can control the Republican party, reconstruction will be obstructed and defeated.

We always make a wide distinction between those who may properly be termed Republicans, better known as moderate or conservative Republicans, and those whose party affiliations are known by the words Radical or Radical Republicans. But while we concede this difference of sentiment between the two wings of that party, the uniform coalescence and co operation of the former with the Radicals in all measures however vindictive or however antagonistic to the principles of the Declarastion of Independence, the Bill of Rights or the Constitution, in order to maintain party ascendancy, make them sharers in the odium and injury which that party may bring upon the country. Their good spirit and purpose may prompt them to affiliate with the Radical party, in order to check and modify the ruin which the Radical programme would entail upon the country. The intention may be a good one, but the means and agencies of effecting good ought to be good, as well as the intention, in order to entitle them to credit. Co-operation with evil intentioned people in order to prevent the greater evil, may be allowable as in our case, when forced to it, but affiliation for such an object, when not forced, may be questionable.

But our cotemporary is not pleased with our assumption, that the proposition asserted in the opening of the Declaration of Independence, that "all men are created equal," is an infidel and unfounded sentiment. We did not intend to be understood to say, that this simple expression, in itself, is infidel, or that, as our neighbor understands it, it is infidel, or that, as we understand it, it is infidel; but we meant that this simple proposition, as applied by the advocates of equality generally, was infidel. Nor do we consider that this proposition, taken in its connections, as it stands in the Declaration of Independence, is such a proposition "as lies at the basis of the American governments, Federal and State." We accept the entire series of propositions and doctrines, as embodied in the Declaration, as forming the basis of American government, and not any one or five of them. And herein lies the fallacy of the claim of the Republican party, that its platform "is built upon" that "laid down by our forefathers, on the 4th day of July, 1776." The Republican party, it appears to us, rears its platform upon parts of the Declaration. This instrument, as well as the Bill of Rights and the Constitution, is garbled to make up a platform, while many of their other propositions and doctrines, of equal value, equally as fundamental, are entirely discarded. It is like some sects, who, claiming the Bible to be their chart, make up their articles of religion from portions of that Word, discarding all other teachings of it, as interpolated, or liable to vicious construction, or having a double meaning. Now, we take the whole Word of God as containing our religious faith, and we so take it, that whatever it teaches, or may be legitimately drawn from it and proven by it, we undoubtingly believe and endeavor to practice. So, we take the whole Declaration of Independence, the Bill of Rights and the Constitution of the United States, as forming our platform or basis of political faith, and we so believe them, that we reject all political maxims and doctrines, which are not based upon them. A little girl was once assailed by an objector, "Why you don't believe all that the Bible says, do you?" "Yes I do," said the little girl. He replied, "Why you don't believe that great fish story about the whale's swallowing Jonah?" "To be sure I do," said the little girl; "and if God had told me, in his Word, that Jonah swallowed the whale, I should believe him."

SOME OF THE ABLEST Northern organs of the "Republican" party have declared it to be an axiom that ignorance was better suited to its designs at the South than intelligence. This doctrine, not long since, was deliberately and elaborately maintained in the Atlantic Monthly,—a Magazine conducted in the interests of the most rigid Republican school.

Here is one enunciation of Radicalism that no one will be disposed to controvert. It sounds the key-note of its whole system of tactics, and embraces the theory upon which all its operations are being practically conducted. "I do not want learned or intelligent men," said a former Emperor of Austria; "I want obedient subjects." Such have been the sentiments of intolerance and despotism in all ages and all countries, and, progressive as modern Radicalism vaunts itself to be, it has made no advancement on this monkish and bigoted doctrine.

Hence it is that it has been found necessary, for the accomplishment of the designs of the Radical managers, to distranchise so large a portion of the intelligence and moral worth of the South, and to entrust an ignorant and generally degraded mass with the virtual control of its political destinies.—Hence it is that Gen. Sickles' suggestion of a general amnesty, hand in hand with universal suffrage, on the ground that but few of the present enfranchised classes are fit to hold civil office, has been denounced as un-Republican. Hence it is that secret leagues, binding its members by oaths of terror, and into which the ignorant and unreasoning are deluded, are formed in every nook and corner of the country.

Radicalism cannot stand light, because its deeds are evil. When the reason of the people, one of these days, shall regain its throne, and the imprisoned light shall break through the clouds, it will be scattered like the foul vapors of night before the morning sun.

BOARDS OF REGISTRATION.

We publish, this morning, an important order from Gen. Sickles, designating the persons who are to compose the Boards of Registration in the various counties of North Carolina. We shall transfer this order to our Weekly and Semi-Weekly issues, and keep it standing for some days in the Daily, also, for the full information of the public.

Our knowledge of men and names in North Carolina is very extended, but not among that class who happen to be legally qualified as Registers. Hence, and for the further reason that no distinction of color is affixed to the names of the Registrars announced, we are not able to pronounce an opinion as to the general character of the appointments made. We presume, however, that Gen. Sickles has done the very best he could with the material at command.

With regard to the Board designated for this county, most of the members of which we know personally, we have no hesitation in saying that we believe it to be composed of those, in the main, who will discharge their duties fairly and impartially.

For the Sentinel.

WESTERN N. C. R. R.,
PRESIDENT'S OFFICE,
MORGANTON, July 19th., 1867.

EDITORS SENTINEL:—In the Standard of the 18th, is an extract from the Statesville American, stating that Wilson and Hunt' Contractors on this road, would import Coolies to work on their contract. The Standard makes this the occasion to assail me as "the Rebel President," who prefers Pagans to our native white and colored people for laborers.

Major Wilson is not associated with Mr. Hunt, or any other of the many contractors. The party referred to, have a contract for about five miles of grading. The firm is Hunt, Swepson & Co. The first is a "Massachusetts Yankee," the second is a special friend of the Ex-P. C., and the other, Major Scales, is an ex-Confederate. If they employ foreigners, let the prejudice attach where it belongs. I have no information of such a purpose, however, and do not believe the story.

But, suppose it be true: what have I, or the Board of Directors, to do with it, whether they hire Pagans or Christians, Coolies, negroes or whites?

The Standard calls me "rebel," because I was a Confederate soldier, I suppose. I have not rebelled since General Lee's surrender, nor interfered against reconstruction.—Does he mean to denounce all such? and has he acted as well?

My apology for noticing the mischievous article is a desire to prevent prejudice against a great State work. The spirit displayed by the Standard precludes the hope of using its columns, and I turn to yours as the next best to effect that object.

Your ob't. serv't,
SAMUEL McD. TATE.
Pres't. W. N. C. R. R.

GEN. STERLING PRICE AT WEST BADEN, IND.—We understand that the distinguished Missourian, General Sterling Price, is at present among the visitors at West Baden Springs, Ind., and will remain there a short time. Quite a number of our own citizens are also spending the summer at this popular and healthful resort.—Louisville Journal, 17*th*.

The impeachment committee has spent $30,000 in procuring testimony, which is just thirty times its worth.

The emperor of Austria would not go to Paris until Napoleon promised him that Bazaine should keep out of sight.

Col. Venable, of Gen. Lee's staff, has accepted a Professorship in the University of Virginia. The Southern military men take to the colleges as readily as ours do to Congress.—Boston Post.

BOARDS OF REGISTRATION.

HEADQUARTERS 2ND MIL'Y DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., July 19, '67.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 60.

The following appointments of Registers are announced. The persons named will be assigned to duty by Post Commanders as members of Boards of Registration for the several Registration Precincts they may establish within their commands.

Commanding Officers of Posts will fill vacancies and report their action to these Headquarters for confirmation.

Two Boards of Registration will be organized for each County in North Carolina having more than six election precincts, except the Counties of Beaufort, Cumberland, Craven, Edgecombe, Granville, Halifax, New Hanover, Wake, Davie and Wilson, which shall have the Boards provided for in this order.

Three Boards of Registration will be organized for each District in South Carolina, except the Districts of Barnwell, Berkeley, Orangeburg, Lexington, Beaufort, Greenville, Chester, Colleton and the city of Charleston, which shall have the Boards provided for in this order.

Registers will be required to take the oath prescribed by the Act of Congress approved 2d July, 1862. Blank forms of this oath of office will be furnished to Post Commanders and when duly subscribed and sworn will be returned to these Headquarters.

The election precincts established by law or custom as voting places in the Counties and Cities of North Carolina and in the Districts, Parishes and Municipalities of South Carolina, will be designated by Post Commanders as the places for Registration. It is desirable that no more than six of these and preferably a less number, be included in a Registration Precinct and assigned to one Board, so that ample facilities may be afforded for Registration.

Every Board of Registration will choose its presiding officer, who will represent the Board and announce its action upon all matters coming before it.

Regulations for the government of Registers in the discharge of their duties will be duly published as soon as practicable for general information.

[We omit the list of Registrars for South Carolina.]

A WOULD-BE GUY FAWKES.—To-day some workmen employed in paving near the Capitol engaged in a discussion as to the passage of the reconstruction bill yesterday. One of the number, named Sorrell, remarked that if he had the power he would go over and blow up all Congress. Mr. Samuel Strong heard the remark, and asked him to repeat it, which Sorrell did. Mr. Strong informed Judge Fisher, Senator Nye, and others of the occurrence, and they advised his immediate arrest. Detectives McDevitt and Clarvoe proceeded to the place, and on their approach Sorrell ran, but after a chase he was caught. He will have a hearing before Justice Walter at six o'clock this evening.—Washington Express, 20*th*.

The local of the Columbus Enquirer overheard a conversation on the street in that city, recently, which is very suggestive. A white radical was electioneering with some freedmen in behalf of his party, when a conservative came up and remarked that it was very strange that the radicals were so anxious to get the votes of the negroes, but never proposed to give their votes to negroes for any offices; that for his part, if the blacks were to be allowed to vote, he was willing to give them offices, too—would elect them to Congress. "Ah," exclaimed the white radical, "I see what you are after—you want to disgrace the radical party!"

LIFE INSURANCE.
THE NORTH AMERICA
LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY.
New Features and Advantages Which are Known as Belonging to no Other Company in the United States.
THE MANAGEMENT OF THIS COMPANY IS upon the Mutual Benefit System—the accumulated profits going to the assured.
This company makes a special deposit with the Insurance Department of the State, for which Registered policies are issued if desired, countersigned by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York, certifying that such policies are secured by pledge of public stocks.
No other Company gives the assured a guarantee of this character or anything equivalent.
Thirty days' of grace are allowed on all renewed premiums, and the policy remains valid and in full force during that time.
No restrictions as to travel or residence abroad at any season of the year, outside the tropics, which gives a nearly world-wide and unconditional policy.
No higher rate of premium charged for stationary Engineers, Conductors, Baggage Masters, Mail Agents, nor in consequence of change of employment after the policy is issued.
Notes are not required by this Company, but a loan may be obtained on the policy for one third of the annual premium, which is cancelled by the profits applied as dividends.
Joint policies, including man and wife, are issued by this Company, and the amount insured is payable to the survivor on the death of either.
Our dividend, January 1st. 1866, was 45 per cent.
Dividends are declared annually, and paid on settlement of 4th. Annual Premium, on all our plans upon the full amount of premiums received.
Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.
All policies issued by this Company are non-forfeiting, after two, in some instances, and three annual payments in others.
The per centage of premium receipts in 1865, over 1864, was 251 per cent; which is nearly double that of any other New York company.
Policies incontestable from any cause except on account of fraud.
For insurance in this Company apply to

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 24, 1867.

To ADVERTISERS.—The public will find the Sentinel one of the best mediums of advertising in the State. Its circulation covers a larger area, perhaps, than any other paper.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Landreth's Fresh Turnip Seed: Williams & Haywood, Fayetteville Street.

Best Kerosene Oil: J. Brown, (with Hart & Lewis.)

Corn, Vinegar, Molasses, Flour, Sugar, Coffee, &c., &c.: Pulliam, Jones & Co., Wholesale Grocers.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Philip Davis, colored, arrested for intoxication on Fayetteville Street, was lodged in the Guard house and fined $2.

Daniel Norwood, colored, arrested for keeping a disorderly and gambling house on Sunday, and at other times, near the African Church, was fined $35.

Richard Collins, Crawford Chavers, Carson Ricks, John Jeffreys, Brown Williams, Nelson White, Sam'l Hawkins, and Joseph Chavers, all colored, arrested for gambling, on Sunday, at the house of the aforesaid Norwood, were each fined $10.

William Ivey, colored, arrested for intoxication in the Market House, lodged in the Guard house and fined $2.

NEW SOUTHERN BOOKS.—Messrs. Edward J. Hale, & Son, No. 16 Murray St., New York, will publish, early in August:

A Defence of Virginia, [and through her, of the South], in recent and pending contests against the sectional party. By Professor Robert L. Dabney, D. D., author of the Life of General (Stonewall) Jackson.—1 vol. 12mo., cloth, $1,50.

Diary of a Southern Refugee, during the war. By a Lady of Virginia. 1 vol. 12mo., cloth, $2.

Several of our most eminent men, to whom the Mss. of the first named publication has been submitted, have approved it in the highest terms; and the "Diary" is a thrilling narrative of scenes and incidents.

Either of the books will be sent by mail post-paid, on receipt of the price, or both together on the receipt of $3.

The same enterprising firm,—the only Southern Book House in New York,—have in preparation, to be issued before long, "A Life of Gen. Pat. Cleburne, of Arkansas,—the Stonewall Jackson of the Southwestern Confederate Army."

APPOINTMENT.—We are pleased to learn that Gen. W. G. Lewis has been elected Chief Engineer of the Williamston and Tarboro' Railroad.

MELVILLE.—"Jinks," the correspondent of the Danville Times, gives the following notice of Melville and the Wilson school:

"This charming little country seat is only five miles from Mebanesville—and a delightful place it is for a school. Here it is that the Rev. Alex. Wilson, (better known as "the old Dr.") has taught for the last thirty years. Some eighteen months ago, he associated with himself Dr. John Wilson, of Milton, N. C., well known around our country, as a gentleman and accomplished scholar. In the serious decline of the old Doctor's health—for he is now well nigh unto death—he has thrown his mantle upon Dr. John Wilson, and committed to his faithful charge the whole school—to be known in future as "The Wilson School."—Doctor John is handsomely situated for carrying it on. With a nice, large house, and his good lady to attend to the boarding department, he is able to accommodate 20 or more boarders, and families in the neighborhood will attend to the rest. This place offers superior advantages for training a boy. No temptations to allure him from his books, and the best instructions to cultivate and prepare him for usefulness."

The exercises of the school are not interrupted by the present illness of Rev. Dr. Wilson. They go on as heretofore, and boys will continue to receive the excellent instruction which they have always had in this institution.—Sentinel.

CAPT. WADDELL.—This gentleman, the commander of the celebrated steamer Shenandoah, arrived in Baltimore last Friday from Europe. We are pleased to chronicle his safe return, and hope that he will meet with no annoyance either governmental or personal. It would afford us much pleasure to meet him, should he pass this way.—Petersburg Index, 22d.

Mr. C. H. F. Peters, of Hamilton College Observatory, Clinton, N. Y., on July 7th, discovered a new asteroid. It is of the eleventh magnitude, and is still about one month before opposition with the sun. The planet promises to be a bright one.

STATE ITEMS.

——The Charlotte Times says that Mr. J. Adler, an experienced miner of that city, has made an improvement in the manner of treating auriferons minerals for the extraction of gold, whereby all loss or waste is prevented. He has entered a cavent in the Patent office, and is now experimenting, preparatory to applying for a Patent.

——The wife and child of Capt Jay Andrews, of Iredell, were throwa from a buggy, while on their way to Wilkesboro, a few days since. Capt. A. having alighted to secure a loose rein, the horse became frightened and ran away. Mrs. Andrews was considerably injured, but the infant received little or no hurt.

——Mr. Daniel Parks, a young gentleman who lately removed from Salisbury to Texas, was drowned, on the morning of the 7th inst., in Yagua river, Texas.

——The Commencement exercises of Davidson College took place last week. The Charlotte Democrat says that a large number of visitors were present, and that the annual address by Gov. Vance is spoken of in high terms. It adds:

"The Institution is reported to be in a very satisfactory condition, and under the administration of its new President, Rev. Dr. McPhail, is receiving an increased patronage and affording gratifying indications of usefulness."

—— The Statesville American, alluding to the recent disturbance in Wilkes County, says:

"The Raleigh Standard contains two letters, written from Wilkesboro, pretending to give statements of the occurrences that took place there on the 4th., which are evidently one-sided and incorrect, and therefore do gross injustice to the Conservative and orderly portion of that community. One of these letters states that, the Conservatives went to the Court House, armed and prepared for a row, while the Redstrings were unarmed and innocent as doves; and that the unarmed Reds drove the armed Rebs from the Court House! Such a statement will hardly be believed—it is quite improbable. To the contrary, the Redstrings, were fully armed and equipped, no doubt, and hence, not being prepared to defend themselves, they withdrew from the building and went about their business—until the afternoon, when the difficulty was resumed, among the colored people, of opposite sentiments. The "lame negro," Sandy, who these letters state was beset and unmercifully beaten by the Conservatives, is himself a Conservative, and the "beating" he received was done by some of the Redstrings, because he came to the assistance of a former young master, who is himself cripple. Sandy, it is said, made vigorous use of a crutch, which he uses to walk with, in defending Mr. Peden and himself from the assaults made upon them. We look upon the whole affair as very unfortunate for the community where it happened, but Radicalism is lawless and arrogant, caring nothing for the consequences."

—— Under the head of "Marriage Extraordinary," the Register, of this City, announces the following:

"In this County, on Thursday, 18th inst., by Henderson A. Hodge, Esq., Elder Burwell Temple, late Editor of the Primitive Baptist, to Mrs. Nancy Robertson. The bridegroom is aged 74 years, and this is his third marriage. The bride is 61 years of age."

—— The Wadesboro' Argus says, the people in that section of the State are in a truly pitiable and helpless condition in relation to mail facilities. Service has been discontinued on all the routes from Wadesboro'. The Argus appeals to the citizens to exert themselves and petition the Department at once.

——The contractor on the route from Salisbury to Cheraw, who has been carrying the mail for a year past, stopped service last week. It was generally understood that he had the contract for carrying the mail for four years from the 1st. inst., but for some cause unknown he stopped as above stated.

——D. Rumley, Esq., late Assistant Assessor of Internal Revenue for the New Hanover District, has been appointed Collector of Customs for the port of Wilmington, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Col. Jas. P. Foster. Mr. Rumley is a native of Carteret County.

——Private Kuhn, Co. K., 8th. U. S. T., was accidentally shot in Goldsboro, on day before yesterday, by a pistol in the hands of the Sergeant of the Guard. The ball penetrated the knee, and amputation will be necessary.

[From the Knoxville, Tenn., Free Press.]

In the Circuit Court at Kingston, Roane County, East Tennessee, Judge Houk held the court in place of Judge Hall. A man was arraigned for trial, charged with a felonious assault. The prosecutor had been a rebel, the defendant a Union man. The Federal troops had encamped on the prosecutor's premises. The officer in command had sold the corn of the prosecutor to the defendant for the value of the corn. They had agreed to arbitrate the matter. They met for the purpose. The defendant, with a pistol, made an assault upon the prosecutor, such as the Grand Jury deemed a felonious assault. The case came on for trial. The Attorney General waived the felony and the defendant submitted for a misdemeanor. The examination of witnesses developed the facts as above stated. His Hon. (?)—Houk—gravely announced that he was half inclined to send the defendant to jail because he had not shot the prosecutor! He said that he ought to shoot him yet. He further said that the rebels tried to gain their independence in the field and had failed, and that they could not be allowed now to avail themselves of the courts of the country to prosecute Union men. He further said that any Union man who might slay a rebel under the circumstances of the case before the court should never be punished while he held the court.

Colonel Thornburg, the District Attorney, immediately arose, and, with a look that was itself a rebuke to the so-called Judge, said:

"If the court pleases, I wish to say, for the benefit of this people, that if any one shall, under the advice of your Honor, take the life of any citizen of this county, I will have him indicted and brought to punishment."

"He will not be punished by this court," said Houk.

"I should not expect to try him before this court," said Thornburg.

Houk then proceeded to pronounce the judgment of the court in the case before mentioned. He fined the defendant the enormous sum of five cents.

We derive these facts from members of the bar who were present, and from the Attorney General himself.

REGISTRATION.

AUGUSTA, July 23,—P. M.

The Board of Registration in the 13th Senatorial District orders employers to notify employees of the presence of the Board for registration.—In any instance where the order is not enforced by the employers, they will have the extent of the law enforced by a Military Commission.

SURRATT TRIAL—JUDICIARY COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON, July 23, P. M.

The Judiciary committee adjourned to-day until October.

CHOLERA—CROPS.

MEMPHIS, July 23—P. M.

The cholera is decreasing here. The President of the Board of Health states that no cases have occurred in the vicinity where the Nicholson pavement is being laid.

Late accounts from Arkansas represent the disease as prevailing there. On a plantation in the vicinity of Pine Bluff and Helena, one planter lost twenty-five hands last week.

FOREIGN.

BERLIN, July 23,—P. M.

Count Bismarck's official organ denies that there is any truth in the recently reported stories of a probability of war.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 23,—P. M.

By an Imperial ukase Poland is now absorbed into Russia, as one of the Provinces of the Russian Empire.

MILITARY COMMISSION—TWO WOMEN KILLED BY A RAILROAD TRAIN.

WILMINGTON, July 23, P. M.

A Military Commission, to try three citizens of Robeson county, charged with assaulting a Bureau officer, convened here this morning.

The train going west on the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad, last night, ran over and killed two women, near Timmonsville, S. C.

GREAT SUFFERING—THE LEVEES.

NEW ORLEANS, July 23,—P. M.

The Indianola Bulletin, of the 18th, reports the yellow fever on the increase. The sick are in almost every house in town. An appeal is made for assistance in the way of money or hospital supplies.

There is much suffering and many families are destitute and without protection.

Requests for contributions for relief for the sufferers are addressed to the Mayor of Indianola, by whom they are turned over to the Howard association.

A Convention of Planters is in session in this city to endeavor to devise means for rebuilding the Levees. The result is undetermined.

MAKING BROAD THEIR PHYLACTERIES.—While the dominant party in Congress is wielding the "rod of despotism," and enacting the most rigid measures in reference to the South, repudiating their professions of motives in carrying on the war, as embraced in the famous resolution passed after the Bull Run disaster, Mr. Charles Sumner, one of its most truculent leaders, and second perhaps to none in his venomous hatred towards the "barbarous" South, finds time to report a joint resolution expressive of sympathy with the suffering people of Crete, and directing the President to communicate a copy of the resolution to the Government of Turkey.—Norfolk Journal.

Several of the leading Radicals of Tennessee were formerly negro traders—dealers in human flesh, who didn't hesitate a moment to separate the mother from her child if they could make a few dollars by the operation. There are some of the same sort in North Carolina. They formerly used the negro for their own personal profit—they are trying to do the same thing now.

The Universalist congregation at Worcester, Massachusetts, observed a recent Sunday as "Lily Sunday." The altar, and desk, and choir were profusely and tastily decorated with flowers, among which the lily occupied the most prominent place. The minister preached from the text about the lilies of the field.

The rush of immigrants to Minnesota this year is unprecedented. Every steamboat and train is loaded with them, very generally carrying their teams, horses, cows, sheep, &c., with them. Two thousand have passed over one track alone, bound for the Sauk Valley, since the opening of navigation.

Mr. Greeley having declined to recommend woman suffrage, on the ground that "public sentiment" does not demand it, the pertinence of that expression is now thrust upon him by a petition presented in favor of such an innovation, signed by Mrs. Horace Greeley and others.

A Radical speaker said at Savannah on the 4th of July, "The soldiers of the North and the South sleep in a common grave, and our corn and wheat fields will be greatly improved years hence in plowing up their bones, as they are the common dead of a common country."

The negroes of Petersburg have petitioned against the poll tax, and against the appropriation of $8,000 made for the improvement of the navigation of the Appomattox, and for as much money to be appropriated to negro as to white schools.

Mr. Johnson told "a Democratic Congressman that he would willingly resign his position as President if he could but enter the Senate again and meet the leading Radicals in debate."

Gerrit Smith writes to a gentleman of Kanawha county: "It rejoices me to find that my visit to Richmond is so warmly approved by the South, and also by a large part of the people of the North."

The yield of wheat in a single county in Ohio is estimated at seven hundred thousand bushels, which will bring over one million of dollars.

Two thirds of the Republican party told their hands in patient, stupid despair, under the infliction of Grant for President, while the other third is hunting round for shoulder-straps heavy enough to outweigh his.—Wendell Phillips.

RECEPTION OF THE VETO MESSAGE BY THE HOUSE.

A desperate effort was made in the House yesterday, after the message had been read, by Messrs. Stevens, Boutwell, and Butler, to excite "the party" to the impeachment point, but without perceptible effect. The firm, energetic, and decided, yet dignified, terms of the message commanded the respectful attention of the members generally, and the violent assumptions and virulent abuse of the President by the leaders of the impeachers evidently received neither the sympathy nor favor of a majority of the House. During the reading of the message not the slightest manifestation of disrespect was evinced. On the contrary, it seemed that members, though coerced by the force of party necessity, to sustain the bill by their votes in opposition to the veto, were profoundly impressed with the unanswerable reasoning of the President. This was especially manifested by the demeanor of those members of both Houses (many Senators being present) who were known to be at heart opposed to that portion of the bill which superceded the authority of the Executive in supervising the action of the district commanders, which constituted the main point in the message. The attempt of Mr. Boutwell to produce a counter feeling was mortifyingly abortive. In his oratorical flourish he several times paused, clearly anticipating the plaudits of the galleries, but none were given, and his effort fell without a response from even his fellow-destructives. Butler was listened to with marked impatience, and even Stevens failed to "bring down the House" by his superannuated attempts at wit.—Nat. Intelligencer, 20th.

A man had a quarrel with the cashier of a dining saloon in New York, and finally ran off. He was pursued and captured by a policeman, and taken before Justice Hogan at the Tombs, when, on being charged with stealing a pasteboard check valued at two cents, the worthy Justice committed him to the Tombs for trial.

ST. CLEMENT'S HALL.

ELLICOTTS MILLS, MD.,

(NEAR BALTIMORE.)

THIS SCHOOL WAS ESTABLISHED FOR the purpose of enabling SOUTHERN BOYS, at a comparatively moderate cost, to enjoy all the advantages that are afforded in the best and most expensive Northern Schools.

It has been, already, eminently successful. The Hall is a large and beautiful edifice. The Household is under the immediate charge of the Rector and his wife. The pupils are all received as members of the family; strict attention is given to their health, personal habits and to the cultivation of courteous manners, while every care is taken to unite the comforts of a home, with the strict discipline of a School. In these respects, this Institution claims to have no superior in the country.

The Teachers are all gentlemen of fine classical attainments, and the instruction is of the most thorough kind.

Circulars, containing full particulars, with references and list of pupils, will be sent to any address.

THE SENTINEL.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 24, 1867.

From the Dublin U. Magazine.

MEMORY.

Soft as rays of sunlight stealing
On the dying day;
Sweet, as chimes of low bells pealing,
When eve fades away;
Sad as winds at night that moan,
Through the heath o'er mountains lone,
Come the thoughts of days now gone
On manhood's memory.

As the sunbeams from the heaven
Hide at eve their light;
As the bells when fades the even
Peal not on the night;
As the night-winds cease to sigh
When the rain falls from the sky,
Pass the thoughts of days gone by
From age's memory.

Yet the sunlight in the morning
Forth again shall break,
And the bells give sweet-voiced warning
To the world to wake.
Soon the winds shall freshly breathe
O'er the mountain's purple heath;
But the Past is lost in Death—
He hath no memory.

THE NEW VIRGINIA PULPIT ORATOR.

A correspondent of the Petersburg Index, writing from Baltimore, says:

"But there was a pulpit prodigy here the same day, who is growing into such fame as bids fair to rival that of Spurgeon. His name is Munsey, and he is a member of the Baltimore Conference, we believe, of the Methodist Episcopal Church—South. He has not been long at this calling, and was an unlettered man in humble life but comparatively a few months back, when his talent was revealed to a friend, who aided him to the short culture with which he is producing such wonderful effect. His power of orstory is said to be miraculous, and his reasoning faculties no less so. People here and in the Valley flock to hear him, and his influence is talked of and felt everywhere. I could not gain a seat in the church in which he held forth Sunday night; but several friends who were more fortunate reported that all the praises they had previously heard bestowed upon him fell far short of the real height of his powers.—Certain it is, that hereafter he will be so famous as to cause interest even to this meagre notice of his ministerial beginning."

We find the above paragraph in several of our exchanges, and copy it for two reasons—first, because it contains a merited compliment to Mr. Munsey; and secondly, for the purpose of correcting an error or two into which the writer has fallen. The writer is mistaken as to the length of time Mr. Munsey had been in the ministry. Instead of but a few months, he has been in it several years—a dozen at least. He was not an unlettered man when he entered upon his work, but a well taught, tho' self-taught boy, of some 16 or 17 years of age. He was not aided by a friend, but has made himself what he is by his own unaided efforts. He is a native of one of the mountain counties of this Congressional District—Tazewell, we believe—and was thrown upon his own resources when he was about 16, with a widowed mother, who is still living, and several sisters, thrown upon him for support and protection. He sustained them by the labor of his hands in summer, and by teaching school in winter.

Mr. Munsey is really a prodigy—a wonderful prodigy—and withal an unassuming, humble, conscientious christian. He is certainly among the ablest theologians of the day, and as a pulpit orator has but few equals and fewer superiors.—Abingdon Virginian.

AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL.—Every farm and workshop ought to be a school where our sons and others can be taught to guide the plough and swing the scythe, and handle every tool in the most appropriate manner known to those skilled in their use. In the one, should be taught the nature of soils, the qualities and uses of manures, and all the minutiæ of the cultivator's art; in the other, the laws which govern mechanics should be studied, and the pupil should be instructed in all the mysteries of the mechanic arts. Thus, in both should be taught all the various learning which goes to complete the farmers' and mechanics' education for the practical duties of their calling.

But their education should not be on the farm or in the work-shop alone. The district schools should not be neglected. These are pre-eminently the farmers' and mechanics' colleges. They ought to be improved, and made to become such schools as are now but too uncommon, where our youth may obtain not only a good business education, but one that will fit them for all of the duties which grow out of the relations they sustain to each other, their country, and their God.—W. B. Downer's Address.

ORIGIN OF THE PRINTER'S DEVIL.—For the information of those who are ignorant of the origin of this important character, we give the following explanation, which we find in the Advertiser's Gazette:

When Aldus Manutius set up in business as a printer at Venice, he came in possession of a little negro boy. This boy was known over the city as "the little black devil," who assisted the bibliofactor, and some of the ignorant persons believed him to be none other than the embodiment of Satan, who helped Aldus in the prosecution of his studies. One day, Manutius, desiring to dispel this strange hallucination by publicity, displayed the young "imp" to the poorer classes. Upon this occasion he made this short but very characteristic speech—"Be it known to Venice, that I, Aldus Manutius, printer to the Holy Church and Doge, have this day made public exposure of the PRINTER'S DEVIL. All those who think he is not flesh and blood may come and pinch him."

Not long since, a youth older in wit than years, after being catechised concerning the power of Nature, replied: "Ma, I think there's one thing Nature can't do. She can't make Bill Wilson's mouth any bigger without setting his ears back."

General Orders No. 32.

1. Any citizen, a qualified voter according to the requirements of the Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2nd, 1867, and the act supplemental thereto, passed March 23rd, 1867, is eligible to office in the Provisional government of North and South Carolina. All persons appointed to office will be required to take the oath prescribed by the act aforesaid and to file the same duly subscribed and sworn with the Post Commander.

2. All citizens assessed for taxes, and who shall have paid taxes for the current year, are qualified to serve as jurors. It shall be the duty of the proper civil officers, charged with providing lists of jurors, to proceed within their several jurisdictions, without delay, and ascertain the names of all qualified persons, and place them on the jury lists, and from such revised lists all jurors shall be hereafter summoned, and drawn in the manner required by law.

3. All citizens are eligible to follow any licensed calling employment or avocation, subject to such impartial regulations as may be prescribed by municipal or other competent authority, not inconsistent with common rights and the Constitution and laws of the United States. The bond required as security shall not exceed the penal sum of one hundred dollars. One or more sureties being citizens and worth, in the aggregate, double the amount of the bond, over and above just debts, will be sufficient.

4. The Mayors of cities and other municipal and town officers, and all Sheriffs, Magistrates and Police officers, are required to be vigilant and efficient in maintaining order, and in the discharge of their duties. They will be expected to co-operate with the military authorities.

5. Post commanders may summon to their aid, whenever the ordinary means at their disposal shall not be sufficient to execute their orders, such of the civil officers, and as many of the citizens, within the territorial limits of the military post, as may be necessary, and the neglect or refusal of any person to aid and assist in the execution of the orders of the Commanding officer will be deemed a misdemeanor, punishable by such fine and imprisonment as may be imposed by a military tribunal approved by the Commanding General.

6. No license for the sale of intoxicating liquors in quantities less than one gallon or to be drank on the premises shall be granted to any person other than an Inn-keeper. The number of such licenses shall be determined, and the fees to be charged for each license shall be prescribed and collected, by the municipal or town authorities and appropriated exclusively for the benefit of the poor. If any person shall be found drunk on the premises where liquor is sold, the license may be revoked by any magistrate. The tax imposed by the Internal Revenue laws of the United States is an additional charge and does not excuse the person from the observance of local regulations, nor exempt him from the payment of such other license fees as may be imposed by the municipal or other competent authorities.

7. All contracts hereafter made for the manufacture, sale or transportation, storage or insurance of intoxicating liquors shall within this military district be deemed and treated as against public policy, and no civil action, suit or proceedings for the enforcement of any such contract shall be entertained in any court.

8. In public conveyances on railroads, highways, streets or navigable waters, no discrimination because of color or caste shall be made, and the common rights of all citizens therein shall be recognized and respected. The violation of this regulation will be deemed a misdemeanor and render the offender liable to arrest and trial by a Military tribunal to be designated by the commanding General, besides such damages as the injured party may sue for and recover in the civil Courts.

9. The remedy by distress for rent is abolished. Where lands are leased, or let out for hire or rent, cotton, corn or other produce of the same, when severed from the land, may be impounded, but the same shall not be removed. Any cotton, corn or other produce so impounded shall be held as security for the rent or hire so claimed and may be sold in satisfaction of any judgment for the same, Provided, that any unsatisfied claim for labor bestowed upon the cultivation of such cotton, corn, or other produce, shall, in no case, be postponed to any demand for rent or hire, but to the extent of such claim for labor there shall be a lien on such cotton, corn and other produce having preference over any claim for rent or hire.

GUILFORD LAND AGENCY,
OF NORTH CAROLINA,
BRANCH OFFICE, RALEIGH, N. C.
PRINCIPAL OFFICE, GREENSBORO, N. C.

Persons having Agricultural and Mineral Lands, Water Powers, Town Lots and all kinds of REAL Estate for sale, are respectfully invited to place them in our hands for that purpose, as our facilities for bringing purchasers from Northern States and placing property prominently before the public, through our advertisements, and also through our agencies and correspondents in the North and West, are unsurpassed. WE ARE NOW WAITING FOR LANDS TO BE PLACED IN OUR HANDS FOR SALE, in order to sell to a party of substantial farmers from the North.

Our terms are as follows: Persons placing property in the hands of the Guilford Land Agency of North Carolina, will be charged FIVE per cent. commission on all amounts realized. Five dollars entrance fee must be paid when the property is placed in our hands.

Persons at a distance wishing to place property in our hands should give us an accurate description of the same. If Agricultural Lands, they should specify the soil, number of acres of cleared and timbered lands, the kind of timber, what is raised on the land, what kind of improvements are on the premises, how far from Railroad and from County-seat; whether it is well watered, &c. IF MINERAL LANDS, they should state what kind of Minerals, the indications, &c., always sending a good fair specimen of the ore. It would also be advisable to send a sketch of the land to us.

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger Bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 23, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established; Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowlege and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of —— or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof: that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5. That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers, and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."
